2010 Alberta Open Go Tournament sponsored by The Centre for Newcomers

The Alberta Go Association is pleased to announce the 2010 Alberta Go Championship hosted by the Calgary Go Club!

Players from across the province are invited to Calgary, May 15-16, 2010. The tournament will feature a Swiss-McMahon format in five divisions, including a Calgary – Edmonton dual meet match. The Calgary Club team has won four consecutive matches in past tournaments. This year Edmonton Sabaki club will come back strongly to challenge the trophy. Fantastic prizes are planned for all divisions!

In addition to the opportunity to play, learn, and compete, go players around the province will share experiences, meet old friends, and make new ones.

All the details are available on the attached information sheet and registration form.

From 30 kyu to 6 dan, there will be something for everyone. Don't miss it!
